- 2) Beat together peanut butter, butter, and sugar in a large bowl until smooth. Add pretzel mixture; beat until just mixed.
- 3) Roll pretzel mixture into 1-inch round balls; transfer to a large baking sheet lined with parchment paper. Chill until set, about 30 minutes.
- 4) Place chocolate chips in a large microwave-safe dish; microwave until chocolate is just melted, about 60 seconds, stirring every 10 seconds. Remove immediately and stir well.
- 5) Roll chilled pretzel balls in melted chocolate to coat. Transfer back to parchment-lined baking sheet. Chill until set, at least 1 hour. Store in fridge up to 3 days.
